

2010 MISSION ZERO MILESTONES PRESS EVENT

Join Interface, Inc. and the EPA to Learn More about the Climb up Mount Sustainability

At this important milestone—10 years away from 2020—Interface, the worldwide leader in design, production and sales of environmentally responsible modular carpet, will share its progress toward eliminating the company's impact on the environment by 2020 at a press briefing. The sustainability pioneer will unveil its "2010 Mission Zero Milestones" report, announce a major new initiative to increase transparency and call on other businesses to advance their journeys up Mt. Sustainability. The US Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) will highlight its efforts to encourage the emerging megatrend of sustainability.
